POINTALLS COMMITTEE MEETING

25th October 2016 SUMMARY OF DECISIONS

Key items discussed and agreed were:

- ❖ The sub-committee responsible for plot applications and lettings report a pipeline of 27 prospective tenants on the waiting list. Prospective tenants are now invited to view the site and discuss their requirements before confirming their interest.
- ❖ Change of Status. The first Special General Meeting took place on 25th October. Votes cast were unanimous in favour of adopting the resolution. See the Home page link for SGM minutes.
- ❖ A new postal and registered office address and post code has been approved by LBB and Royal Mail. Details to be published later.
- ❖ A skip will shortly be available on site for rubbish clearance.
- ❖ Complaints received from neighbours and tenants regarding bonfires on individual plots. Tenants have received letters/emails requesting all to exercise restraint, observe regulations and preferably transport appropriate materials to our communal fire site for disposal.
- ❖ Action is being taken to improve the condition and cleanliness of the onsite toilet.
- ❖ The annual bonfire will take place on Saturday 5th November. Check the website News page and notice boards later for full details.
- ❖ Barnet Allotment Federation presented us with the 'Ted Green Memorial Award' cup, given for an outstanding community initiative. Details can be viewed in our website News page.
- ❖ Options to improve site security and safety are being evaluated.
- ❖ See Committee News page for details of next scheduled meetings.
